

Parliamentary Guard
NOTICE
on Unmanned Aircraft

1. Airspace restrictions

Unmanned non-state aircraft (drones) shall not be operated in the airspace above and within a 300-metre radius of the area of Kossuth Lajos Square, and the site of the Office Building of the National Assembly, the Szabad György Office Building, which is protected by the Parliamentary Guard.

The Parliamentary Guard shall upload airspace restriction data to the mobile application (<https://app.mydronespace.hu/>) supporting the use of drones, containing current airspace information and other restrictions.

2. Unmanned toy aircraft (toy drones)

Only drones weighing up to 120 grams and not capable of moving more than 100 metres away from the pilot may be operated in the area referred to above.

A device capable of recording images does not qualify as a toy drone and its operation is prohibited!

In order to determine whether the operated vehicle is considered a toy or not, the parliamentary guard may initiate an action. If, at the request of the parliamentary guard, the operator is unable to prove that the device operated is a toy drone, the parliamentary guard may request police action.

3. Measures against unauthorised use of airspace

The Parliamentary Guard may take the following measures against unauthorised drones: detecting, requesting to land, intercepting and, in cases provided by law, electronically disrupting the drone, and forcing it to land electronically or mechanically. If the unauthorised drone use also constitutes a criminal offence, or if the person does not refrain from committing the offence despite being requested to do so, the parliamentary guard is entitled to apprehend and identify the person involved in the infringement. The parliamentary guard may inspect the clothing, luggage and vehicles of the person refusing to prove their identity or whose identity cannot be established at the scene.

4. Remedies

Anyone who believes that his or her fundamental rights have been violated by an action of a parliamentary guard may bring a complaint to the Commander of the Parliamentary Guard. The complaint may be submitted within 30 days from the date of the infringement.
